Plaintiff, )
v. )
COUNTY OF WASHOE, et al. )
Defendants. )
ORDER

Before the Court is the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge (#24) ("Recommendation") entered on March 25, 2008, in which the Magistrate Judge recommends that this Court enter an order dismissing the Plaintiff's complaint without prejudice. No objection to the Report and Recommendation has been filed.

I. DISCUSSION

19 This Court “may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or 20 recommendations made by the magistrate.” 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) (2005). Further, under 28
21 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), if a party makes a timely objection to the magistrate judge’s
22 recommendation, then this Court is required to “make a de novo determination of those 23 portions of the [report and recommendation] to which objection is made.”<sup>1</sup> Id. Nevertheless,
24 the statute does not “require[] some lesser review by [this Court] when no objections are filed.”
25 Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149–50 (1985). Instead, under the statute, this Court is not
26 required to conduct “any review at all . . . of any issue that is not the subject of an objection.”

<sup>1</sup> For an objection to be timely, a party must serve and file it within 10 days after being served with the magistrate judge's report and recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) (2005).

1 Id. at 149. Similarly, the Ninth Circuit has recognized that a district court is not required to
2 review a magistrate judge's report and recommendation where no objections have been filed.
3 See United States v. Reyna-Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114 (9th Cir. 2003) (disregarding the standard
4 of review employed by the district court when reviewing a report and recommendation to which
5 no objections were made); see also Schmidt v. Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d 1219, 1226 (D.
6 Ariz. 2003) (reading the Ninth Circuit's decision in Reyna-Tapia as adopting the view that
7 district courts are not required to review "any issue that is not the subject of an objection.").
8 Thus, if there is no objection to a magistrate judge's recommendation, then this Court may 9 accept the recommendation without review. See e.g., Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d at 1226
10 (accepting, without review, a magistrate judge's recommendation to which no objection was 11 filed).

12 In this case, Plaintiff has not filed an objection to the Magistrate Judge's Report and 13 Recommendation. Although no objection was filed, this Court has reviewed the Report and 14 Recommendation, and accepts it. Accordingly,

15 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Magistrate Judge's Report and 16 Recommendation (#24) entered on March 25, 2008, is adopted and accepted without
17 modification. Thus, in accordance with the Report and Recommendation,

18 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff's Complaint is DISMISSED without prejudice.
19 The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment accordingly.

20 IT IS SO ORDERED.

21 DATED: This 15th day of April, 2008.
